DEMON SPORTS NETWORK

Natchitoches radio station KZBL-FM 100.7, owned by Baldrige-Dumas Communications, is the flagship station for select Demon broadcasts. The Demon Sports Network also consists of KWLA 103.1 (Anacoco) and NSUDemons.com/watch, which streams audio of select games.

You can also hear games via the internet at www.nsudemons.com. The Demon Sports Network features Patrick Netherton, who is in his 15th year as the play-by-play announcer. Netherton also is the host of The Great Big Morning Show, originating out of Shreveport, and is an avid Twitter and Facebook publisher.

2017 OUTLOOK

In hopes of keeping its recent run of success, the Northwestern State baseball team turns to a familiar face in 2017.

Former All-Southland Conference first baseman Bobby Barbier begins his head coaching career at his alma mater, looking to build upon back-to-back 20-win seasons in the Southland Conference.

Doing so will test both the Demons and Barbier's mettle.

"We had three teams in the top 51 of the RPI last year," Barbier said of the Southland. "Lamar and UNO were up there, too. It shows how good our league is. Every weekend, you see someone knocking off a Power 5 team."

Barbier, the first former Demon player to skipper the squad since Johnnie Emmons in 1989, is far from the only new face around Brown-Stroud Field this season. The Demons' roster is stocked with 16 newcomers, including a handful of pitchers who could fill a number of roles on the NSU staff under first-year pitching coach Chris Bertrand.

Junior-college right-handers Dan Hlad, Cole Langdon and John Carter Sanner join freshmen Emile Lege and Evan Daigle as newcomers. Bertrand also has experienced seniors in right-handers Evan Tidwell (10 career wins) and Tim Winders and left-hander Devin Bear (3.05 ERA, 21 appearances in 2016).

Talented sophomores Nathan Jones (2-2, 3.10, 5 saves) and Austin Reich (3-2, 2.78, 1 save) are primed for larger roles after strong debut seasons.

Sophomore Jesse Fruge (1-0, 2.25) was solid in his first collegiate season and gives Barbier a second left-handed option out of the bullpen.

"It will be nice to see how those new guys react to it," Barbier said. "We lost Adam (Oller). We lost Chase Hymel. We lost Jeff Stovall. We lost guys we can count on to go out and eat innings. We've got very talented arms. This year, as much as any year I've been here, we have arm talent."

The loss of Oller (8-1, 1.23), a second-team All-American and 20th-round draft pick (Pittsburgh), opened up the Friday starter's role for the first time since the first half of the 2014 season. The ripple effect carries into the bullpen where Jones and Reich split time as the team's closer in 2016.

"Roles are still developing," said Barbier, NSU's pitching coach for the past two seasons. "We like to let it play itself out, especially the bullpen guys. I think you can put a lot of pressure on a guy by labeling him."

Offensively, the Demons have to replace a pair of draftees -- center fielder Nick Heath (16th round, Kansas City) and catcher Daniel Garner (32nd round, Philadelphia) -- as well as the 2015 SLC Hitter of the Year (Cort Brinson) and 2014 draftee Bret Underwood.

Despite those losses, the Demons return several veterans in the lineup, including second-team All-Southland Conference second baseman David Fry.

Fry batted .264 with a team-best seven home runs while starting all 57 games in his sophomore season. Fry enters the season having started 102 consecutive games. Barbier said he plans to deploy Fry in more of a super utility role this season.

"David's a tremendous player, very versatile," he said. "He's going to play probably three to four different positions. He's played second and third. He has the potential to play first, and he's worked behind the plate some. Offensively, he gives you a competitive at-bat. He's the guy conference opponents will have circled on the lineup card."

The Demons infield has a mix of experience and projectability. Seniors Matthew Alford and Spencer Goodwin were key components of an NSU defense that turned a school-record 71 double plays in 2016, and fifth-year senior Regan Kaufman had a pair of game-winning hits a season ago.

Freshman Caleb Ricca enters with plenty of eyes upon him, earning pre-season SLC Freshman of the Year nods from Perfect Game USA and D1Baseball.com.

Junior catcher Kelsey Richard emerged from his redshirt season to hit an even .300. He is joined behind the plate by junior college transfer Hunter Uzzle.

Richard is, in many ways, similar to junior outfielders Kwan Adkins, Miller Parker and Cade Jones. All four waited behind established veterans before earning playing time.

"Our team is made of a lot of guys like that," Barbier said. "Guys who worked themselves into good players. Guys who aren't necessarily given a lot when they get here, but they work themselves into the players they are."

Adkins was named the No. 5 draft prospect in the Southland by D1Baseball, which also tabbed Fry as the league's No. 18 prospect and Langdon at No. 20. Adkins' tools include plus speed that should be an asset in center field.

Senior Matt Valdez, who hit .273 with three home runs after transferring from Temple College, gives the Demons a solid left fielder while Barbier expects to see Parker fight for time in right field along with newcomers such as Tyler Smith and Lege, a two-way player.

As is customary at Northwestern State, the Demons will face a tough non-conference schedule that includes 2016 College World Series participant Oklahoma State and super regionalist LSU. NSU also will take a five-game trip to face Big 12 foes Kansas and Kansas State in March.

"Good teams expose flaws," Barbier said. "You become better as a team when you know what your flaws are. We'll have an idea before we get started, but when you open against a team like Cincinnati, every arm they run out there is going to be good. Every hitter's going to be competitive in the box. You can get away with a few things when you play teams that don't expose your flaws."

"We put our players in tough environments, in tough situations, so when it comes time for conference play, they've been there already. It's a good schedule that will challenge us."

Bobby Barbier Head Coach Sixth Season at Northwestern State (First as head coach) Northwestern State, 2006

"One of the most respected and revered players in school history" is how Northwestern State Director of Athletics Greg Burke describes the 12th baseball coach in Demons history.

Former Northwestern State Academic All-American and All-Southland Conference first baseman Bobby Barbier took over the Demons baseball program on June 21, 2016, following a two-year stint as NSU's pitching coach.

Barbier spent the 2015 and 2016 seasons helping the Demons craft two of the lowest ERAs in recent Northwestern State baseball history.

The son of former Nicholls football coach Darren Barbier was an easy choice to succeed Lane Burroughs.

"Bobby was born to be a coach and is the son of a coach," Burke said. "He has the work ethic, interpersonal skills, baseball knowledge and, as a Demon baseball alumnus, a unique level of passion for the program, which will enable him to sustain and even enhance the team's success level."

In addition to helping guide ace Adam Oller to a pair of All-American selections, Barbier's tutelage led the Demons staff to a 3.01 ERA that ranked ninth nationally.

Barbier directed Oller to a season in which he went 8-1, posted a 1.23 ERA (third-lowest nationally) and earned Southland Conference Pitcher of the Year honors, along with All-American nods from Louisville Slugger/Collegiate Baseball magazine and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

In his first season, Barbier helped the NSU staff post a 3.55 ERA while Josh Oller became the program's first 10-game winner in 11 years and Brandon Smith tied the program record for single-season saves (10). The overall ERA marked an improvement of more than one run from 2014 and was the lowest mark since 2002 (3.54).

Forming successful pitchers stood in opposition to what Barbier did while wearing a Demon uniform.

Barbier, the 2006 Southland Conference Scholar Athlete of the Year, played four seasons for the Demons, finishing his career ranked in the top 10 in eight offensive categories. He remains second in NSU history in hit by pitches.

Upon his arrival in Natchitoches in the summer, Barbier began implementing and imparting his pitching system that will debut at Brown-Stroud Field this spring.

After spending the 2007 season as a student assistant and the following two seasons as an assistant coach, Barbier joined former NSU head coach Mitch Gaspard's staff at the University of Alabama, where he spent five seasons as the Crimson Tide's third base coach.

While at Alabama, Barbier coached five All-Southeastern Conference selections, including Academic All-American Taylor Dugas. Twelve Alabama players were selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft during Barbier's Crimson Tide tenure.

Barbier was part of a Crimson Tide coaching staff that led Alabama to four regional appearances from 2010-14, including the Atlanta Regional championship and a berth in the 2010 Clemson Super Regional.

Barbier's responsibilities at Alabama included coaching outfielders, assisting with catchers and infielders, directing camps and scouting and being heavily involved in recruiting. Barbier also was the staff's academic coordinator. Barbier was a key contributor on the field as Alabama's defense set a school record for fielding percentage in 2011.

During his first stint as a Demons assistant, Barbier coached NSU infielders and hitters as well as acting as the team's base running coordinator. Under his tutelage, NSU led the Southland Conference in stolen bases with 99. Barbier also coordinated travel, field maintenance and team academics as an NSU assistant.

In his Demons playing career, Barbier epitomized the term student-athlete. In addition to being awarded the Southland's top individual academic honor, Barbier was a 2004 Academic All-American and a part of the 2005 Southland Conference All-Academic Team.

On the field, Barbier saw the majority of his playing time at first base, earning honorable mention all-conference accolades in 2004 and first-team All-Southland honors in 2005, while helping lead NSU to the 2005 Southland Conference title and a berth in the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional.

Even though his playing career ended nearly a decade ago, the left-handed-hitting Barbier still ranks in the career top 10 in hit by pitches (2nd, 44), RBIs (4th, 130), games played (7th, 209), doubles (T-10th, 33), hits (10th, 181) and total bases (10th, 267).

During his college career, Barbier laid the foundation for his future career, coaching American Legion ball for three years (2005-07) in Natchitoches and in his hometown of Lafayette, directing each of his teams to regional tournament berths.

Barbier earned his bachelor's degree in health and human performance from Northwestern State in December 2006. He is married to the former Kody Sprout and the couple has one daughter, Landry.

"Bobby has many of the qualities you would like to see in a successful head coach. He has a clear plan and vision for the direction of where he wants to take the program, and he will deliver a continued message for the players to follow. During his time with me as both a player at Northwestern State and coach at Alabama, Bobby has always been a tremendous communicator. This will take effect in the way he molds his program with the community, administration, coaches, players and recruits. Being the son of a coach, Bobby displayed elite leadership skills at a very young age in his playing career for me."

"I feel one of the top qualities a person can have is being 'trustworthy.' In my years of being a head coach Bobby was one of the most trustworthy players and coaches that I have had in my 27 years in the profession. I have no doubt that everyone in his program will develop an endless trust in his words and actions that will lead to success both on the diamond and in real life."

Chris Bertrand Assistant Coach First Season at Northwestern State Louisiana College, 2005

After spending four seasons as the head coach at Texas-Tyler, Louisiana native Chris Bertrand begins his first season as the Northwestern State pitching coach.

In his four seasons at the helm of the Patriots, Bertrand guided UT Tyler to a 119-69 record, three American Southwest Conference championships and three NCAA Division III Tournament appearances.

"Chris has been a part of championship programs at every stop and will help us develop that championship culture here at Northwestern State," head coach Bobby Barbier said.

As the Patriots head coach, Bertrand mentored six all-region players in his final two seasons, including four in 2015, led by American Southwest Conference Newcomer of the Year Jaime Paxton.

For their efforts, which included a 34-12 record and ASC regular-season and tournament championships, Bertrand and his staff were named the 2015 ASC Coaching Staff of the Year.

Bertrand's Patriots teams were familiar with success on and off the diamond. In his first season, Bertrand had 13 players named Academic All-ASC while 12 of his players earned All-ASC East Division honors, including East Division Player of the Year Kevan House. House was a first-team All-Region selection that year while teammates Chance Cotton (second team) and Isaac Tijerina (third team) also earned all-region honors.

In all, Bertrand coached 41 all-conference and eight all-region selections at UT Tyler.

In addition to coaching at UT Tyler, Bertrand was the athletic department's director of external marketing where he enhanced the game day experience for all Patriots athletics and enhanced the exposure and aesthetics of the UT Tyler athletic facilities.

Prior to his tenure at UT Tyler, Bertrand spent seven seasons as the pitching coach and associate head coach at LSU-Shreveport, helping the Pilots reach the NAIA World Series in back-to-back seasons (2011, 2012). His 2012 staff held the school records for shutouts (13) and ERA (3.10) until 2015. It still owns the school mark for strikeouts (476).

Bertrand helped coach right-hander Jared Mortensen, a current Houston Astros farmhand, to first-team All-America honors in 2012 and tutored 10 first-team all-conference pitchers in his LSUS tenure.

Bertrand also spent the summer of 2010 as the pitching coach for the Alexandria Aces of the Texas Collegiate League and three years as an associate scout for the Kansas City Royals. Bertrand is a member of the American Baseball Coaches' Association, the Texas Baseball Coaches Association and the Louisiana Baseball Coaches Association.

He has spoken at the Texas High School Baseball Coaches Association Convention and the Southern Baseball Association Baseball Recruiting Seminar and has published the article, "General Pitching Mechanics," for www.insidepitching.com.

Bertrand played two seasons of baseball at Bossier Parish Community College before finishing his career at Louisiana College where he earned his bachelor's degree in business administration. He earned his MBA from LSU-Shreveport in 2007.

An Abbeville native, Bertrand is married to the former Lori Quigley of Shreveport and the couple has a daughter, Rayleigh (5), and a son, Callen (2).

G.T. McCullough Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator Fifth Season at Northwestern State Mississippi State, 2012

Entering his fifth season at Northwestern State, G.T. McCullough has added recruiting coordinator responsibilities to his list of tasks on the Demons staff.

McCullough is in his third season as a full-time assistant coach and will work with the Northwestern State infielders in 2017 after spending the past two seasons coaching the Demons outfielders.

If McCullough's success carries over to the infield, the Demons will have a productive unit.

In 2016, McCullough tutored center fielder Nick Heath to a single-season school record 35 steals en route to Heath becoming a 16th-round draft pick of the Kansas City Royals.

In his first season as a full-time assistant coach, McCullough worked closely with the Northwestern State outfielders, which included Southland Conference Hitter of the Year and baseball Student-Athlete of the Year Cort Brinson, who won the team's triple crown and added first-team All-Louisiana honors to his resume.

With McCullough's tutelage, Heath swiped 23 bases in 27 tries. Working with McCullough, Heath was successful on 84.1 percent of his stolen base tries in his final two college seasons.

McCullough is also in charge of planning of team events, budgetary management, practice planning and other baseball-related projects.

In his prior role as a volunteer assistant, McCullough also coached the Demons outfielders, which included Bret Underwood, a 20th-round draft pick of the San Francisco Giants who returned to NSU for his senior season.

McCullough was a two-year student manager at Mississippi State, working with Lane Burroughs, who later became the NSU coach from 2012-2016, and Bulldogs head coach John Cohen, the Demons' head coach in 1998-2001. McCullough also spent another year as a student worker with the Mississippi State program. During his time with the program, the Bulldogs reached the 2011 NCAA Super Regionals and won the 2012 SEC Tournament championship, making another regional appearance.

McCullough, a magna cum laude graduate of Mississippi State in kinesiology with a concentration in teaching and coaching, has two summers of successful coaching experience in American Legion baseball, in Tupelo, Miss., and Tuscaloosa, Ala., where he was head coach and led the Post 34 team to the Alabama Central Division championship.

Originally from Tupelo, Miss., McCullough is a 2007 graduate of Tupelo High School. He is married to Sally Beth McCullough of Brookhaven, Miss. The couple welcomed their first child, a daughter named Sally Grace, in August 2016 and are expecting their second child later this year.

Taylor Dugas Volunteer Assistant Coach First Season at Northwestern State Alabama, 2012

Former major leaguer Taylor Dugas enters his first season as the hitting coach at Northwestern State.

Dugas, a Lafayette native and Teurlings Catholic High product, was a four-year letterman at Alabama, setting school records for hits (334), singles (235), doubles (67) and triples (18).

He was a two-time, eighth-round draft pick (Chicago Cubs, 2011, New York Yankees 2012) and reached the major leagues with the Yankees in 2015.

In his four-season professional career, Dugas batted .283 and drew 195 walks while striking out just 171 times.

In addition to his duties as the hitting coach, Dugas will work with the Demons outfielders and assist with baserunning coaching.

"Taylor's one of my all-time favorites that I've ever coached," said head coach Bobby Barbier, who mentored Dugas during the latter's career at Alabama.

"He embodies the grit we're trying to impart on our guys and how we want to play. He was a great hitter. He has tons of experience working with great hitting coaches. It's a unique situation and a blessing to get someone of Taylor's quality. It's a great fit for us."

After signing with the Yankees organization in 2012, Dugas played four seasons, twice topping 100 hits. This is his first coaching position.

Brandon Smith Graduate Manager Second Season at Northwestern State Northwestern State, 2015

Former Demons closer Brandon Smith enters his second season as a graduate manager with Northwestern State baseball.

Smith needed just two seasons to etch his name in the NSU record books, tying the school single-season saves record with 10 in his senior season of 2015. Smith is tied with current Minnesota Twins farmhand Mason Melotakis for third place in school history in career saves.

In his two seasons, Smith appeared in 43 games, making two starts. He threw 84 2-3 innings and posted a 1.91 career ERA. Smith finished his career with a 6-4 record and anchored a stellar NSU bullpen as a senior.

Smith graduated with a degree in biology from NSU in May 2015 and is pursuing a master's degree in health promotion.

At Meridian (Miss.) Community College, Smith struck out 110 batters in 110 innings in two seasons while helping his team reach the conference tournament.

At Petal (Miss.) High School, Smith won 30 games in four seasons and helped lead the Panthers to back-to-back Mississippi Class 6A state titles in his junior and senior seasons.

Jeffrey Stovall Graduate Manager First Season at Northwestern State Northwestern State, 2016

A two-year member of the Northwestern State pitching staff, Jeffrey Stovall enters his first year as a graduate manager for the Demons.

Stovall transferred to Northwestern State after two years at Howard College in Big Spring, Texas. His two seasons at Northwestern State were spent mainly as a starter.

Stovall made 34 appearances (20 starts) across two seasons, posting a 10-8 record with a 3.82 ERA across 139 innings.

Stovall was named the Louisiana Sports Writers Association Pitcher of the Week on March 28, 2016, after tossing a complete game in a win against Grambling. He allowed one unearned run and was the second complete game of his career. A control specialist, Stovall walked just 14 batters in his NSU career.

At Howard College, Stovall went 5-6 and posted 51 strikeouts against just 10 walks. At Irving (Texas) High School, Stovall was a three-time all-district pick and an all-state selection.

Stovall graduated from Northwestern State with a degree in communications in May 2016. He currently is pursuing a master's degree in sport administration at Northwestern State.

Dustin Chadwick
Head Strength and Conditioning Coach
Second Season at Northwestern State
Pacific Lutheran, 2011

Dustin Chadwick is in his second year as the head strength and conditioning coach for Northwestern State.

Chadwick is in charge of implementing strength training and conditioning programs for all 13 of NSU's intercollegiate programs.

In his first year, Chadwick helped train the Southland Conference Tournament champion Northwestern State women's basketball team.

Prior to NSU, Chadwick interned at TCU where he worked with the strength and conditioning program, including women's basketball, baseball, swimming and diving and women's golf. Chadwick was a competitor in the NANBF bodybuilding and AAPF power lifting competitions in 2012 and 2013.

He received a bachelor's in fine arts from Pacific Lutheran in 2011 where he was a three-sport athlete competing in football, rugby and lacrosse.

Elizabeth Holloway
Administrative Assistant
17th Season at Northwestern State

Elizabeth Holloway (or "Ms. E" as most players call her) has worked for football, baseball and track as their administrative assistant since 2001.

She worked in athletic compliance for five years before taking a break to work in the private sector. After three years, she returned to NSU to work for football, baseball and track as their administrative assistant. She has been working for them for the last 14 years and can't imagine a better bunch of people for which to work.

Elizabeth and her husband Ted have called Natchitoches home for 23 years and enjoy their four acres out in the country where they share the fun with their dogs Sophie and Paco.

She has two adult children. Amy Bickers, an assistant director of development communications at UAB, lives in Birmingham. Amy's daughter, Kate, Elizabeth's 15-year-old granddaughter, attends high school in Birmingham and plays lacrosse. Her 18-year-old grandson, Jacob, attends UAB. Elizabeth's son, Tim Bickers, recently graduated from Northwest Louisiana Technical College with a degree in welding and is working in Shreveport.

Elizabeth spends her free time reading, working around her home and spending time with her husband, Ted.

Esi Atinkah
Associate Director of Sports Medicine
Fourth Season at Northwestern State
Alabama, 2013

After earning her master's degree from Northwestern State in May 2015, Esi Atinkah is in her second year as a full-time member of the Northwestern State athletic training staff.

Atinkah is hired through Northwestern State's partnership with Natchitoches Regional Medical Center.

She was promoted to associate director of sports medicine in July. In that role, Atinkah supervises two full-time athletic trainers and all of NSU's graduate assistant athletic trainers.

Atinkah spent her graduate school tenure as the athletic trainer for the Northwestern State baseball team and has remained in that role after completing her master's degree.

A 2013 University of Alabama graduate in athletic training, Atinkah worked with the Crimson Tide baseball, football, track, and tennis teams.

She has worked the Alabama Relays, Nick Saban football camps, tennis tournaments, and the BCS National Championship.

NSU A COACHES' PIPELINE TO SEC

Northwestern State baseball has enjoyed a tremendous run of success in the past three decades, molded by head coaches and assistants who have climbed the ladder to the highest levels of college baseball. Entering the 2017 season, four of the 14 head coaches in the Southeastern Conference, widely regarded as the toughest conference in college baseball, spent part of their careers on the Demons staff. Additionally, former Demons skipper Jim Wells helped build Alabama into a national power, leading the Crimson Tide to the 1996 College World Series championship game and was succeeded by Mitch Gaspard, who is now the associate head coach at Kansas State. The four current SEC coaches with Northwestern State ties have combined for four College World Series appearances at their current schools. Van Horn led Nebraska to back-to-back CWS appearances in 2001 and 2002 before taking the Arkansas job between the 2002 and 2003 seasons.

Well into its sixth decade of service, the Southland Conference continues to be a model of innovation, stability and consistent achievement as it celebrates the academic and athletic accomplishments of its member institutions and approximately 4,200 student-athletes.

Having commemorated its 50th anniversary in 2013, the Southland Conference has transformed itself into a dynamic and respected consortium of 13 member universities in three states. Beginning with a historic meeting of five institutions in Dallas on March 15, 1963, the Southland Conference set on an extraordinary course that has proven successful well into the 21st Century.

The successful transformation continues, as the Southland Conference welcomed four additional members in 2013: Abilene Christian University, Houston Baptist University, the University of Incarnate Word in San Antonio, and the University of New Orleans.

In addition to its newest members, the Southland also consists of the University of Central Arkansas, Lamar University, McNeese State University, Nicholls State University, Northwestern State University, Sam Houston State University, Southeastern Louisiana University, Stephen F. Austin State University and Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

An original Southland member from 1963-73, Abilene Christian rejoined the league as one of the most decorated athletic programs in NCAA history, and the addition of Houston Baptist, UIW and New Orleans gives the Southland a regular competitive presence in the key metropolitan areas of Houston, San Antonio and New Orleans. Southland cities encompass approximately 14 million people, and six of its television markets among the top 100 in the U.S.

All told, the membership of the Southland encompasses nearly 140,000 current students and an alumni base of nearly 800,000. Famous alums from current Southland Conference schools include former CBS news anchor Dan Rather (Sam Houston State), NBA executive Joe Dumars (McNeese State), ABC news anchor Robin Roberts (Southeastern Louisiana), Major League Baseball star Wade Miley (Southeastern Louisiana), NBA legend Scottie Pippen (Central Arkansas), and track and field Olympians Kenta Bell (Northwestern State), and Bobby Morrow and Billy Olson (both Abilene Christian).

Other notable alums from current members include Grammy Award-winning musicians Frank Ocean (New Orleans), Don Henley and Rodney Crowell (both Stephen F. Austin), and Ronnie Dunn (Abilene Christian), television personality and actress Ellen DeGeneres (New Orleans), current NFL standouts Lardarius Webb (Nicholls State), Terrence McGee (Northwestern State), and Daniel Manning (Abilene Christian), professional golfers Shawn Stefani and Chris Stroud (both Lamar) and Colin Montgomerie (HBU), award-winning filmmaker Richard Linklater (Sam Houston State), American Idol winner Kris Allen (Central Arkansas), NFL Hall of Famer Jackie Harris (Northwestern State), former NFL standouts Bobby Hebert (Northwestern State), Gary Barbaro (Nicholls State), Wilbert Montgomery (Abilene Christian) and Gary Reasons (Northwestern State), former MLB stars Darryl Hamilton (Nicholls State) and Kevin Millar (Lamar), NCAA football coach Charlie Strong (Central Arkansas), actors John Larroquette (New Orleans), Ricardo Chavira (UIW) and Jesse Borrego (UIW), and the late NFL coaching legend O.A. "Bum" Phillips (Lamar and Stephen F. Austin).

The Southland sponsors 17 full championship sports, all at the NCAA Division I level. The eight men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field. The women compete for nine championships in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball. The conference earns automatic qualification to NCAA championships in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball. The Southland Bowling League, an affiliated Conference sport, originated in 2015, and four of its members filled out half of the eight-team bracket, with Stephen F. Austin advancing to the national title match.

BROWN-STROUD Field

HOME OF THE NORTHWESTERN STATE DEMONS

BUILT IN 1939...

Brown-Stroud Field has been home to nine Southland Conference titles since 1991. Named after the first two baseball head coaches in school history - C.C. Stroud (1912-1930) and H. Alvin Brown (1949-1966), the ballpark has undergone significant changes in the past few of years with the addition of chairback seating, extended bleachers, an awning covering to protect the new seating, expanded dugouts, new landscaping, new field turf to the infield, and new for this season, a state-of-the-art sound system. Year in and year out, the Demons have faced some of the top teams in college baseball including College World Series teams LSU, Alabama, UL Lafayette, Nebraska and Missouri State. Other top-notch opponents stepping foot in Brown-Stroud Field have been Arkansas, Baylor, TCU, Missouri, Houston, Kansas State, Oral Roberts and Iowa State just to name a few.

DEMON BASEBALL... A HIT SINCE 1912

All-Americans. Conference championships. NCAA Regional appearances.

All of the above have been part of the tradition that is Northwestern State baseball, a program that has made its share of headlines and memories in the last eight decades.

NSU's baseball tradition dates to 1912, when the first incarnation of the Louisiana Normal nine won 7 of its 11 games. With the exception of a 18-year gap from 1930-1948, the diamond Demons have written a legacy of success for the better part of a century.

Individual accomplishments have blended into team success, creating a program that has enjoyed a run as one of the best in the Southland Conference in the last three decades.

Numerous All-Americans have donned the Purple and White, beginning with Danny Turner in 1967 when the Demons competed at the NAIA level. Darryl Woods bridged the gap between the NCAA and NAIA eras, earning All-American honors after belting a school-record 19 home runs.

Outfielder Terry Joseph was a two-time Academic All-American (1993, 1995) and ranks 9th in career batting average. Pitcher Reggie Gatewood was named a second-team All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association in 1994 after posting an 11-3 record and a 2.14 ERA. Shortstop Ryan Anholt earned third-team All-American honors from the American Baseball Coaches Association in 1998 when he batted .417 with 15 home runs and 71 RBIs in his junior season.

Three Demons pitchers have earned Freshman All-American honors – Kyle Broughton and Derek Cloeren in 2005 and Adam Oller in 2014.

One of the most decorated runs in NSU baseball history began with its entrance into the Southland Conference, a league the Demons have called home for the past 27 seasons.

In that time, the Demons have accumulated 49 first-team All-Southland Conference selections, seven Coach of the Year awards, four Pitcher of the Year honors, two Hitter of the Year awardees, eight Newcomer or Freshman of the Year winners and one Relief Pitcher of the Year.

As a team, the Demons have captured 10 conference championships. Included in that grouping is a run of three straight SLC titles (1993-95) that has been accomplished by just two other Southland schools.

Perhaps more impressive than the sheer volume of championships is Northwestern State's three NCAA Regional appearances during their Southland Conference membership. Each time the Demons have advanced to NCAA postseason play, they have done so as an at-large team, speaking to their ability to put together impressive regular seasons.

In 1991, coach Jim Wells' Demons earned the first NCAA Regional berth in school history and were placed in the NCAA South II Regional in Baton Rouge. The Demons fell to eventual national champion LSU, 11-2, and were edged by UL Lafayette, 11-7.

Three years later, Wells' Demons earned another at-large bid and were placed in the Midwest I Regional in Stillwater, Okla. After dropping the opener to perennial national power Cal State Fullerton, 11-3, NSU earned its first NCAA Regional victory, as Gatewood overpowered Illinois State, 8-2. NSU fell to Memphis, 14-9, ending its season with a school-record 45 victories.

Wells' success led him to become the head coach at Alabama, ushering in a flood of NSU coaches who took control of Southeastern Conference programs. Currently, former NSU coaches are head coaches at Arkansas (Dave Van Horn), Mississippi State (John Cohen), Ole Miss (Mike Bianco) and Texas A&M (Rob Childress).

The Demons' decade of dominance continued in 1996 with two wins at eventual national champion LSU. Two years later, NSU notched its sixth Southland title and fourth 40-win season of the 1990s.

NSU closed the decade with a 38-21 campaign in 1999. Included in that season were wins against LSU and UCLA. The Demons closed the decade with a .658 winning percentage, which ranked 23rd in the nation.

The 2000s brought continued success with a seventh Southland title in 2001. That season, NSU defeated LSU, 10-8, in front of a record crowd of 4,214 screaming Demons fans at Brown-Stroud Field. NSU repeated as Southland champions in 2002, winning 43 games in Gaspard's first season. The Demons cracked the national top 25 for the first time in school history, reaching No. 23 in the Collegiate Baseball poll.

NSU's 2005 season was simply overpowering, as the Demons racked up 22 Southland wins and won the conference by five games, the largest margin in Southland history. NSU earned the third NCAA Regional trip in school history, traveling to Baton Rouge where it fell to nationally ranked Rice, 7-3, in its opening game before recovering to beat Marist, 4-3. NSU fell to state rival LSU, 12-4, in its next regional game.

In 2010, NSU tied its school record for conference wins with 22 and added victories against nationally ranked Southern Mississippi and Texas A&M. Four Demons earned first-team All-Southland Conference honors and the conference named Chad Sheppard its Relief Pitcher of the Year.

The next three seasons were uncharacteristically trying for the Demons, who nevertheless had three players drafted in 2012, including second-round pick Mason Melotakis (Minnesota).

The hiring of Lane Burroughs, a Mississippi State assistant under Cohen, signaled a return to form for the Demons program. After going 16-40 in his first season, Burroughs engineered a remarkable turnaround, winning 17 more games in his second season. NSU also authored the largest single-season turnaround in Southland Conference history, increasing its conference win total from 5 to 19.

The follow-up season included another improvement as NSU bumped its winning percentage from .559 to .574 and saw outfielder Cort Brinson earn Southland Conference Hitter and Student-Athlete of the Year honors.

In what turned out to be Burroughs' final season, NSU added to its All-American legacy in 2016 as right-hander Adam Oller was tabbed by both the American Baseball Coaches Association and Collegiate Baseball magazine. Oller was one of three Demons drafted (Nick Heath, Daniel Garner) from an NSU team that won its final 10 Southland Conference games of the year, setting a school record for consecutive conference victories, one that remains active entering the 2017 season.

DEMON ALL-AMERICANS

Danny Bob Turner

3B • 1967

NAIA Second Team

Northwestern State's first All-American baseball player, winning that honor in 1967. Turner came to Northwestern from Fair Park High School in Shreveport. He won the 1967 Gulf Star Conference batting title as he hit .411 during the regular season and .443 in conference games. Turner played for the 1967 GSC championship team that made the NCAA Midwest Regional. 1967 statistics - 37 hits in 90 at bats, 27 runs batted in, 4 triples, 5 doubles, and 1 home run, 53 total bases.

Darryl Woods

C • 1974

NAIA, NCAA Second Team

Northwestern's second All-American selection from New Orleans Redemptorist High School, earned All-American honors during the 1974 season. Woods set an NCAA home run record with 18 in 38 games. He hit one in the NAIA playoffs but only regular season stats count towards a record. Woods was enshrined in the "N" Club Hall of Fame in 1992. 1974 statistics - .376 batting average, 52 RBI, 105 total bases, .840 slugging average and a .984 fielding percentage.

Reggie Gatewood, P • 1994

NCBWA All-America Second Team

Reggie Gatewood was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association second-team after guiding Northwestern to their second NCAA Regional appearance. The Mabelvale, Ark., native finished the season 11-3 with a 2.14 ERA. He completed 11 of the 14 games he started and led the team with 101 innings pitched. Gatewood is tied with Eric Barkley for most career shutouts at six and ranks third in wins (21), fourth in winning percentage (.807, 21-5) and fourth in ERA (2.56).

Adam Oller, P • 2016

Collegiate Baseball Magazine Second Team; ABCA Third Team

Adam Oller became the first Demon to earn All-American honors in 17 years and the first NSU pitcher to do so in 22 years. Oller finished the season 8-1 with a 1.23 ERA, which ranked third nationally. A Conroe, Texas, native, Oller tossed 109 2-3 innings, the second-highest total in school single season history. Oller finished his career with the fourth-most career innings (310 1-3) and career starts (43), the sixth-most strikeouts (188), the eight-most wins (20) and the ninth-highest winning percentage (.745) in school history.

Ryan Anholt • SS • 1998/1999

ABCA Third Team

Shortstop Ryan Anholt is the fifth Northwestern State All-American baseball player. The sweet-swinging, left hander from Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, was a third-team selection by the American Baseball Coaches Association after a solid season in 1998. In 1999, Anholt proved his talent in the classroom, as well as on the field, as he was a third-team selection on the prestigious GTE Academic All-America Team. Along with his All-American selections, Anholt was selected Southland Conference Player of the Year, SLC Newcomer of the Year, first team All-Louisiana, and first team All-Region (South Central) after the 1998 season. He finished his career at NSU with a .368 batting average, the second highest in the history of the program.

Dr. Chris Maggio

Acting Northwestern State President

Chris Maggio is a competitor for all seasons. Northwestern State's acting president was an all-sports athlete in high school, a college distance runner at NSU, and a high school football, basketball and track coach. He became a college coach in track and field for the Demons and Lady Demons. He even spent a few years as a high school basketball referee.

Today, you can find him making early-morning runs, and you might see him on the tennis courts. He's made memorable putts at Demon Hills Golf Course.

His zeal for competition makes him a dynamic recruiter and fund raiser for NSU, and his ability to mentor staff members and students combined with his warmth and sincerity to produce a tremendously effective university administrator.

Those traits, along with Dr. Maggio's deep roots and far-reaching relationships made him an ideal choice to take over the presidency at his alma mater.

Dr. Maggio was appointed as acting president of Northwestern State effective January 1. He succeeded Dr. Jim Henderson, whose dynamic tenure spearheaded significant growth and achievement in two years as president. Henderson was named to run the University of Louisiana System, which includes Northwestern and eight other state universities.

The appointment of Maggio, a lifelong resident of Natchitoches and long-time faculty and staff member at Northwestern State, will run through the spring semester and into June as the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System conducts a national search for Northwestern State's president. Maggio is a candidate for the post.

Maggio was named vice president for the student experience at Northwestern State in September after serving as interim vice president for just over a year. He will maintain his role as vice president for the student experience while serving as acting president.

When the NSU Student Services building opened a couple of years ago, designers had a lovely office location for Maggio on the second floor. He asked instead for the room just inside the front door to the building, not connected to any administrative wing, but envisioned as a conference space. His reasoning: Maggio wanted to see everybody who walked in the door, and providing the ability to immediately engage them or at least be easily accessible for anyone who needed help.

As vice president, Maggio has led the Dean of Students and the Offices of Admissions, Recruiting, Financial Aid, Student Activities and Organizations, First Year Experience and Leadership Development, Judicial Services, Counseling and Career Services, Student Life, the Student Activities Board, Student Government Association, Student Support Services, and Greek Life.

Northwestern State has recorded enrollment increases for the past two years. Enrollment for the Fall 2016 semester was 9,819 students, a seven percent increase over the previous fall, the highest growth rate of any University of Louisiana System institution.

Maggio served as assistant vice president of external affairs for university advancement from 2013 until 2015, when he was promoted by Dr. Henderson. He has been a staff member at Northwestern State since 1988, when he joined the track and field coaching staff.

After several years as director of admissions and recruiting during record-setting enrollment for NSU, Maggio was selected as director of alumni affairs in 1999, director of alumni and development in 2003, executive director of the NSU Foundation in 2005 and Dean of Students and assistant provost for student success in 2007. During his career at NSU, Maggio also served as director of enrollment services.

Under Maggio's leadership, the NSU Foundation completed its first capital campaign in Northwestern's history, exceeding a campaign goal of $18.84 million and raising $31 million to support the university.

He has also been a faculty member in the Department of Health and Human Performance for more than 20 years as an instructor, assistant professor and associate professor.

Maggio came on board the NSU staff in 1988 as assistant track and field coach, then became head women's coach a year later. After a very successful five years in that capacity, in 1994 Maggio moved into administration as the fundraiser for NSU Athletics before quickly being snapped up to become the university's director of admissions and recruiting.

Maggio is a 1985 summa cum laude graduate of Northwestern State. He won Gulf Star Conference All-Academic honors in track and field. As a senior, he was elected Mr. NSU by his fellow students.

Maggio earned his master's of education at NSU. He received a doctorate in developmental education from Grambling State University.

His parents helped run a family business in Natchitoches. His father, Buddy, was honored as a "Natchitoches Treasure" this past fall by the City of Natchitoches.

As a young boy, Maggio became playmates with future Basketball Hall of Fame member Joe Dumars, whose home was near one of the Maggio's stores.

Dr. Maggio's wife, Jennifer, is on the NSU staff as Coordinator of Adult Education Initiatives. They have three children, Melanie, Scott, and Emily. Emily is a high school student at St. Mary's Catholic School of Natchitoches, while her older siblings attend other colleges.

Jerry Pierce

Vice President ♦ External Affairs

Only a handful of people have served Northwestern State as long as alumnus Jerry Pierce has, and nobody has done so in a more understated manner.

In his 51st year on the university's staff, Pierce's impact on NSU and the city of Natchitoches is indelible. He's never wanted or gotten top billing, but consistently, he gets results to benefit the university.

He is in his 26th year as vice president of external affairs at Northwestern. A significant aspect of his job is oversight of intercollegiate athletics. Pierce works closely with athletic director Greg Burke and all NSU coaches and staff members to keep Northwestern athletics competing at a championship level week after week, month after month and year after year.

Pierce, an avid tennis player, has been a member of USTA teams that have won more than a dozen state championships, five regional titles and one national championship.

Well before moving into the executive position, Pierce had already served his alma mater, adopted hometown and state with distinction. In his role as vice president, he oversees university operations in athletics, alumni and development, public and media relations and assists President Dr. Jim Henderson in governmental affairs activities. Many of those duties were his since the 1970s as he worked under five previous presidents as Northwestern advanced from NAIA to NCAA College Division to NCAA Division I athletic status in 1977.

A 1961 graduate of Northwestern, Pierce served as trainer/manager for the Demon football team during his college years, working closely with legendary coach Jack Clayton. After earning his journalism degree, Pierce went to work for the New Orleans Times Picayune, serving as a reporter and editor. He was named executive sports editor at the age of 24.

In 1965, he chose to raise his two sons in Natchitoches and returned to NSU as sports information director. He was promoted to news bureau director two years later and assumed additional responsibilities in athletics, alumni affairs and other areas through the years.

He founded, in 1972, the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame facility in Prather Coliseum on the NSU campus, providing a home for an entity created in 1958. He established annual induction activities that remain in place nearly four decades later, and served as director of the Hall for 19 years until his promotion to vice president in April 1990 forced him to step aside from the volunteer post.

He helped guide Northwestern into three athletic conferences (Trans America, 1979; Gulf Star, 1983; Southland, 1987) and NCAA Division I status in 1977. He is a past president of the Southland and has served the conference through other offices and committee positions.

In 1994, he was named one of Louisiana's 20 most influential sports figures by the Times-Picayune. Also on the list were New Orleans Saints owner Tom Benson, LSU athletic director Joe Dean and basketball coach Dale Brown, and Grambling football coaching legend Eddie Robinson.

His salesmanship and managerial skills were instrumental in convincing Tri-Star Productions to film the 1989 smash hit movie "Steel Magnolias," with an all-star cast including Julia Roberts, Sally Field and Dylan McDermott in Natchitoches and on the NSU campus. The movie's impact on tourism in Natchitoches continues to resonate nearly three decades later.

Pierce is regarded as one of the most effective legislative liaisons for Louisiana's higher education system. He is also a sought-after dinner speaker and master of ceremonies who has spoken at hundreds of events since 1965.

In addition to his administrative responsibilities, Pierce is a tenured member of the Journalism Department faculty. He is the author of one book and editor of two others and has written thousands of editorials, columns, features and other articles for newspapers and magazines.

Pierce and his wife Regina, a recently retired teacher, live on Cane River Lake in Natchitoches. He has two sons, Randy and Rick, both NSU graduates; and three grandchildren, twins Evan and Amanda, 27, and Miranda, 16, along with two adult stepchildren, Nicholas and Natalie. He's a doting "Poppy" to Natalie's preschool daughters.

Greg Burke

Director of Athletics

The Burke File

AGE: 60 (Born Oct. 22, 1956) • HOMETOWN: Alliance, Ohio • HIGH SCHOOL: Marlinton '74 • COLLEGE: Mt. Union '78 (cum laude)
 POSTGRADUATE: Kent State '86 • BEFORE HE WAS A.D.: Sports writer, Alliance (Ohio) Review, 1972-78; director of news and sports information, Hiram (Ohio) College, 1978-85; administrative intern, NSU athletics, 1985-86; director, NSU Athletic Association, 1986-92; director of athletic development, University of Akron, 1992-96; director of athletics, Northwestern State, 1996-present.
 BIG FAN OF: Cleveland Browns, Indians and Cavaliers • INTERESTS: Working out, watching ESPN and VH1 Classic, family outings.

In his 21st year as director of athletics at Northwestern State, Greg Burke is highly regarded due to the work he's done in his adopted hometown.

Burke, a native Ohioan still beaming about the Cleveland Cavaliers' NBA title, has been the Demons' athletics director since Aug. 29, 1996, when his first day included speaking at the annual NSU/Independence Bowl Kickoff Luncheon. Burke is the longest serving AD at any Louisiana or Southland Conference institution.

He has steered NSU athletics to many of its greatest accomplishments while overseeing a program that has fielded championship caliber teams in a dozen of the school's 14 NCAA Division I sports. Highlights in Burke's two decades as athletic director include 41 Southland Conference regular-season or tournament championships, 67 All-America and Academic All-America student athletes, and three U.S. Olympic competitors. Twenty-five NSU teams have taken part in NCAA or other postseason competition.

All of the school's athletic facilities have undergone over $7 million in improvements in the past few years. Burke spearheaded a $2 million series of sponsorships for new scoreboards installed for 2008-09 at all NSU athletic venues; the $700,000 Second Century Circle fencing project for athletic venues; a $500,000 softball grandstand project; and a $600,000 upgrade of chairback seating at Turpin Stadium for the 2016 football season.

Fundraising initiatives reached new levels in 2015-16. Formalizing the endowed giving program, branded as "Perpetually Purple," generated an influx of over $100,000, while overall revenue generated by donations and sponsorships cracked $2 million.

Competitively, milestones continue. One of the biggest under Burke: NSU in 2004-05 became the first (and remains the only) Southland Conference member in the league's five decades of history to sweep football, men's basketball and baseball championships in the same athletic year. It's been done only once in Southeastern Conference history, by Alabama in 1933-34, and only four times in Big Ten Conference history, the last time by Michigan State in 1979-80.

Those accomplishments have come with one of the more modest athletic budgets in the state and conference. Burke's management skill and fundraising ability have been pivotal.

Burke has a remarkable ability to hire dynamic head coaches. Anchors of the department are current head coaches Mike McConathy, Louisiana's all-time career basketball wins leader; softball coach Donald Pickett, and track and field coach Mike Heimerman, a trio with nearly 50 combined years on staff at NSU. Two former student-athletes in Burke's tenure are now NSU head coaches: third-year tennis coach Olga Bazhanova, and first-year baseball coach Bobby Barbier. Numerous Burke hires had great success at Northwestern State that propelled them to national prominence in subsequent positions.

Over 100 former NSU student-athletes, coaches and support staff members, most of them here with Burke as AD or assistant AD (1986-92), are working in college athletics at some level. Former Demons are head coaches in the SEC, Big XII, ACC, Mountain West Conference, Conference USA, SWAC, and Southland Conference. Five others hold Associate AD positions in the SEC, PAC 12, and American Athletic conferences.

From his first day on the job, Burke has stressed the importance of having a balanced athletic program. Tremendous competitive strides have been made in women's athletics under his guidance. Just in the past three years, Lady Demon basketball (2014, 2015), softball (2013, 2014), tennis (2013, 2015) and volleyball (2015) have reached NCAA Tournaments.

Burke established a high standard for NSU Athletics in academic achievement and community service.

The academic accomplishments are reflected annually in the NCAA's APR and GSR studies. Community service by NSU student-athletes, coaches and staff more than doubled to over 5,000 hours in 2009-10 and has remained at that level. The Southland Conference created the "Southland Strong" Community Service award to recognize the member institution whose student-athletes compile the most service hours each year. NSU won the inaugural prize in 2014-15 and was second in 2015-16.

Burke spearheaded the adoption of the slogan "Great Tradition, Brighter Future" for NSU Athletics, and the creation of NSU Athletics "Cornerstones" for student-athletes: "Academic Achievement, Personal Responsibility, Competitive Success ... Every Minute, Every Hour, Every Day!"

During Feb. 2013, he was presented the "Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football Award" by the North Louisiana chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. Six years ago, he was included among 29 winners of the Under Armour AD of the Year Award presented by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). Burke was the 2010-11 president of the Football Championship Subdivision Athletics Directors Association.

He serves on the year-old NCAA Committee on Academics, a 20-person group replacing the Committee on Academic Performance, which included Burke. He also has served on the NCAA Championships/Sports Management Cabinet.

Burke previously served a four-year term on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee (1999-2002) and concurrently served a term on the eight-member NCAA FCS Committee that administers the national playoffs. He has served as a site supervisor for Football Championship Subdivision playoff games across the nation, and he is regarded as one of the country's premiere advocates of FCS football.

In 2005, Burke was one of three recipients of the All-America Football Foundation's Gen. Robert R. Neyland Outstanding Athletic Director Award and that same year, was also tabbed as one of two Natchitoches Parish Cenla Newsmakers of 2005 by the Alexandria Town Talk newspaper's editorial staff.

He received the 2006 "Outstanding Alumni Award" from his alma mater, Marlinton High School in Alliance, Ohio, recognizing his community service and professional achievements. At the time, Burke became one of only 21 alumni honored since the award was instituted in 1982.

Burke serves on the Natchitoches Convention and Visitors Bureau board, and on the board of directors for the Central Louisiana Community Foundation. He is a past president of the Natchitoches Kiwanis Club and remains active in that civic group. He has also been part of the steering committee for the Natchitoches Christmas Festival and is a former member of the Natchitoches Area Jaycees. He is involved with the American Heart Association and was 2010 March of Dimes chairman locally.

His wife, Susu, is a Natchitoches native, NSU graduate and an elementary teacher. Their 22-year-old daughter, Catherine, graduated from St. Mary's High School in May of 2012 and is entering graduate school at UL Lafayette after earning her undergraduate degree from Louisiana Tech.

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Jody BISCOE

Joseph (Jody) Biscoe has served as Northwestern State University's Faculty Athletic Representative (FAR) since 2006, which includes the role as chairperson for the NSU Athletic Council. Currently, Jody serves as the chairperson for the Southland Conference Faculty Athlete Representatives and is a member of both the Compliance and Awards

Committees.

Additionally, Jody holds a tenured faculty position in the Psychology Department. Jody also is the Coordinator for the undergraduate Addiction Studies program and the Director for the Louisiana Addiction Technology Transfer Center.

The Biscoes have lived in Natchitoches since 2002. Jody's wife, Roni, is an avid runner and their daughter Roxy is a graduate of Northwestern's Nursing program (BSN). You might often see Jody and Roni spending time with 2-year-old Jaxson, who already is training to be a future Demon multi-sport athlete whose favorite character is "Vic."

ASSISTANT NCAA COMPLIANCE DIRECTOR

Demetrus CALDWELL

Demetrus Caldwell enters his first full year in the Northwestern State athletic department, serving as the assistant director for NCAA compliance.

Caldwell, a Bastrop native, joined the NSU staff in November 2015 spent the past eight years as a master coordination center officer with the Department of Homeland Security's Transportation Security Administration in St. Rose.

Caldwell earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from the University of New Orleans and his master's in sport management studies from California University of Pennsylvania. He is completing a dissertation toward a doctorate in athletic administration from Northcentral University.

During his time as an undergraduate at New Orleans, Caldwell served as an academic and compliance intern with the school's athletic department.

ASSISTANT ATHLETICS DIRECTOR FOR STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

Jasmine CHIEVOUS

Jasmine Chievious is in her first year as Northwestern State's Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development, joining the department in August.

Chievious spent the previous two-plus years as Troy's Life Skills and Academic Coordinator, where she served as the academic coordinator for women's basketball, women's soccer and men's tennis and developed and supervised the life skills program.

Chievious' other duties included advising the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, conducting the athletic department's first full awards ceremony, offering career counseling and was the department liaison for the regional and state Special Olympics.

Chievious spent more than two years at the University of Missouri, where she earned a master's degree in counseling psychology. Her work experience as an intern then a graduate assistant included serving as the academic coordinator for basketball, volleyball, track and field, cross country, wrestling and swimming and diving at different points in her tenure. Those duties included helping at-risk student-athletes with course selection, time management and study strategies.

A Provost Scholar at Fisk University, Chievious earned a Spanish degree in 2010, also serving as an administrative assistant to the athletic director.

Chievious was an adjunct instructor in psychology at Troy. She also has been a committee member for the National Association of Student-Athlete Development and a member of the National Association for Athletic Academic Advisors.

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND PROMOTIONS

Andrew CLAUSEN

Andrew Clausen returned to his graduate school alma mater in May as the director of marketing and promotions.

After earning a master's degree in sport administration from Northwestern State in May 2015, Clausen spent a year at Harvard University as a marketing and promotions assistant.

While at Harvard, Clausen directed in-game promotions for Crimson football games, coordinated social media efforts for the Harvard athletics marketing department, produced online graphics and printed materials, developed marketing and promotional plans for men's and women's basketball and helped lead group ticket sales for men's and women's basketball.

Clausen's first stint in the Northwestern State athletic department came as a marketing and promotions associate while he completed his master's degree. For three semesters, Clausen was responsible for implementing a marketing plan for Northwestern State softball and implementing and executing promotional plans for soccer and volleyball. Clausen also coordinated tailgating activities and sales for NSU football.

Clausen earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a focus in sport management from Colorado Mesa University in 2013. He began his career as a marketing intern at Texas-San Antonio.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE

Jerica COLEMAN

Jerica Coleman is in her first year as a full-time member of the Northwestern State Athletic training staff.

She's serving as the head athletic trainer for women's basketball.

Coleman came to NSU after completing an athletic training residency at Houston Methodist Sugar Land Hospital in Sugar Land, Texas. Along with rehabilitating and treating sports injuries, she participated in community outreach and case studies.

She has spent time in a university setting as an assistant athletic trainer at Austin College, an intern at Yale and Sam Houston State.

Coleman obtained her masters of education in curriculum and instruction with a minor in exercise science from Sam Houston State in 2012.

She graduated cum laude from Texas A&M Commerce in 2010 with a bachelor of science in athletic training.

Coleman obtained her masters of education in curriculum and instruction with a minor in exercise science from Sam Houston State in 2012.

The Denton, Texas, native has worked with football, track and field, squash, women's gymnastics, women's soccer, volleyball, softball, and women's basketball. Her duties included game and practice coverage, injury rehabilitation, record maintenance and student trainer coordination.

Coleman holds certifications from Louisiana, Texas, the American Heart Association and NATABOC.

DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS

Cody CRUMP

Cody Crump begins his first year as the Northwestern State Director of Equipment Operations.

Crump spent the past year as an equipment intern at the University of Oregon where he assisted in day-to-day operations of the program's three equipment rooms, helped oversee game day equipment operations for 19 sports, served as the point of contact for equipment during the Women's NIT and was an active member of the NCAA track and field and softball postseason host committees.

Additionally, Crump was the liaison for visiting football teams and managed practice and game laundry for all sports.

Crump, an August 2015 graduate of Louisiana Tech in kinesiology, spent four seasons as a student equipment manager for the Bulldogs football team. During his time as an undergraduate, Crump was instrumental in fitting, issuing, repairing, inventorying and storing all football equipment. He was responsible for setting up the coaches' communication headsets during game day.

Crump, a Belcher native, is married to the former Lindsey Crook.

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE

Jason DRURY

Now in his ninth season at Northwestern State, Jason Drury was promoted to Head Athletic Trainer in 2012 after the retirement of long-time trainer Ed Evans. Drury joined the sports medicine staff at Northwestern State University in the summer of 2005 after being the head athletic trainer at Natchitoches Central for five years.

In the spring of 2009, Drury took over as the head football athletic trainer for the Demons, after working for three seasons with the women's soccer team and one season with men's basketball team.

A 1999 graduate of Idaho State University in biology, Drury worked with numerous sports in Pocatello, Idaho, including football, men's basketball and track and field. Drury earned his master's degree in sports administration from Northwestern State in 2001, during which time he worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the NSU softball team.

Drury is a native of Paoli, Ind. He and his wife, Toni, have been married for nine years. They have two children, Maddox and Kenzie.

ASSISTANT AD/NCAA COMPLIANCE DIRECTOR

Dustin EUBANKS

Dustin Eubanks is in his 20th year in the NSU athletic department and his 17th year at the helm of the compliance duties, keeping all athletic personnel current and in accordance with NCAA and Southland Conference guidelines.

Eubanks was inducted into the N-Club Hall of Fame in October 2015, becoming just the fourth non-competitor to do so.

A 1996 education graduate of Northwestern, the 43-year-old avid fan of all teams that hail from Pittsburgh seized an opportunity to serve as a graduate assistant in the sports information department at Northwestern while beginning the pursuit of his master's degree in health and physical education (concentration in sports administration), which he obtained in May of 2003, and was impressive enough to earn a promotion to full-time status in November 1998.

Eubanks is married to the former Dawn Hornsby of Branch and the couple has two daughters, Emilie and Taylor Nicole. The sisters share the same birthdate. Dustin and Dawn, who is the Associate Director of Financial Aid at NSU, celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary this summer.

ATHLETICS BUSINESS MANAGER

Roxanne FREEMAN

Roxanne Freeman began working at NSU in 1983 as an accounting clerk in business affairs. She transferred to the athletic department as football/baseball/track secretary and served under Sam Goodwin, Leon Johnson and several baseball coaches for eight seasons before graduating with a B.S. in accounting in May 1995.

Freeman then became the compliance coordinator and academic advisor during a three-year span before leaving in 1998. She returned to NSU in the Fall of 2000 in her current position as Business Manager where she now serves as liaison between the athletic department and business affairs. She has one son, Aaron Pizani, who is also a NSU alum.

ASSISTANT ACADEMIC COORDINATOR

Alexis GUESS

Alexis Guess began her first year as Northwestern State's assistant academic coordinator in July.

Guess brings a varied background, having worked in numerous facets of student-athlete development at both LSU and Duquesne.

As a student services graduate assistant at Duquesne, Guess conducted individual study sessions for at-risk student-athletes, compiled mid-term grade reports for various coaching staffs, coordinated student-athlete tutoring in the spring and summer 2016 semesters, oversaw study hall for incoming and transfer student-athletes and helped create and execute the "Student-Athlete Career Seminar."

As an undergraduate at LSU, Gross spent two years as a content tutor in the Cox Communications Center for Student-Athletes where she tutored student-athletes, composed tutor reports, met with athletic advisors and attended NCAA, SEC and LSU compliance and tutor training sessions. She also completed ethics training for public servants.

As an intern at the Baton Rouge Community College athletic department, Gross oversaw the men's basketball study table, verified student-athlete eligibility and observed student-athlete advising.

Gross has been involved with the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League Summit on Sportsmanship and has taken part in the NCAA Emerging Leaders Seminar.

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR TICKETING & SPECIAL EVENTS

Mike JACKLICH

Mike Jacklich made an immediate impact on the NSU athletic department after being named director of ticketing in October 2014, increasing basketball ticketing revenue by more than 60 percent from the 2013-14 season.

Jacklich, beginning his third year on staff, spearheaded the re-seating project at Turpin Stadium, which saw the installation of 2,360 uniformly purple chairback seats that will debut during the 2016 season.

Jacklich came from suburban Chicago, where he was the director of ticketing for the Schaumburg Boomers of independent baseball's Frontier League. While with the Boomers, Jacklich worked closely with the Boomers general manager to shape and enhance all aspects of fan services. He was responsible for creating and executing all ticketing and sales reports, while training a full-time sales staff and overseeing a group of 15 interns.

Jacklich also wore a variety of hats outside of the Boomers ticket office, including serving as a tour guide at Boomers Stadium and filling in as "Coop," the Boomers' mascot.

Jacklich earned his bachelor of arts degree in mass communication from the University of Tulsa in 2001. Following graduation, he returned to Chicago where he began a six-year run as the assistant audience services manager for the legendary Steppenwolf Theatre Company. While with Steppenwolf, Jacklich helped implement Tessitura, an innovative ticketing software system.

Jacklich, a Lisle, Ill., native, is married to Krishna, whose family lives in nearby DeRidder and who can totally do better than him.

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Steven KAUTZ

Dr. Steven Kautz begins his second season as the head team physician for Northwestern State athletics.

Kautz is board certified in orthopedic medicine and serves as medical director for Natchitoches Regional Medical Center Sports Medicine and PRISM Sports Medicine and outpatient comprehensive therapy services.

He received his Bachelor of Science at the University of California-Irvine and attended the University of Southern California School of Medicine. He completed his internship and residency at LAC and USC Medical Center Department of Orthopedic Surgery.

Kautz has been in private practice since 2000 and has worked with athletes on the professional, collegiate and high school level. He is affiliated with Natchitoches Regional Medical Center, Sabine Medical Center, DeSoto Regional Medical Center and University Hospital (LSU) in Shreveport.

Additionally, Kautz serves as an adjunct professor at LSU School of Medicine and is a member of the medical team for NRMCM Comprehensive Wound Care Center.

He is the team doctor for Many High School and enjoys coaching local youth basketball and soccer teams.

Kautz's wife, Kathleen, is an internal medicine physician with the Natchitoches Medical Specialists Group. The couple has three children - Carissa, Andrew and Peter.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. James KNECHT

Dr. James Knecht has been a Northwestern State team physician since 1984. He finished his pre-med curriculum from LSU in 1975.

While at LSU, he was an Academic All-SEC and Academic All-American football player in 1974.

He has been in private practice family medicine in Natchitoches since 1982. In addition to being Northwestern's team physician, he has also been Natchitoches Central's team physician since 1992. At the 2016 university commencement, Knecht was presented an honorary doctorate in recognition of his long service to the university by NSU President Dr. Jim Henderson.

Dr. Knecht is actively involved in many professional organizations, including the Natchitoches Parish Medical Society, Active Staff Physicians at Natchitoches Parish Hospital, and the Louisiana State Medical Society. He is also a Diplomat of the American Board of Family Practice and Fellow of the American Academy of Family Practice.

His father, Gene, was an assistant football coach at Northwestern State and has been active in the Graduate N Club for three decades. His brother, Brett, is a three-year football letterman who served as Joe Delaney's fullback.

Knecht's wife, Liz, is a CPA and an internal auditor at NSU. The couple has three children - Ashley, Amanda and Landon - and two grandchildren, Ryder and Ian.

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Ashley LEGGETT

Ashley Leggett is in her first season with the Northwestern State athletic training staff. She is hired through NSU's partnership with Natchitoches Regional Medical Center.

Leggett spent the past year interning at Samford, where she served the softball and volleyball programs. She organized physical examinations, SCAT3 and ImPACT testing for softball and volleyball student-athletes along with the rehabilitation, management and treatment of injuries. In addition, she implemented post-surgical SLAP repair protocol and a return-to-play throwing program.

After graduating from Alabama in 2013 with a bachelor's of science in athletic training, she completed a master's at Iowa in leisure and recreational sports management in 2015.

As a graduate assistant trainer at Iowa, she worked with the softball program. Leggett managed all aspects of daily medical needs including prevention, evaluation, treatment, and rehabilitation of student-athletes.

As an athletic training student at Alabama, she aided the football, softball, swimming and diving programs as well as the rowing team. She traveled with the football team to the SEC and national championships and worked the Women's College World Series.

Leggett has also worked with the Alabama Patrick Murphy Softball School, the Nick Saban Football Camp, and the Big Ten Cross Country Championship among other events.

Her professional memberships and certifications include the states of Louisiana, Iowa and Alabama athletic training boards, a NATABOC Certified Athletic Trainer, a National Athletic Trainers' Association member, a Southeastern Athletic Trainers' Association member, and an American Heart Association CPR Health Care provider.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC FACILITIES/EVENT OPERATIONS

Luke MASHBURN

Luke Mashburn was named Northwestern State's Director of Athletic Facilities and Event Operations in July.

Mashburn spent 2015 at the University of Kentucky, serving as Assistant Director of Event Management and Championships. He was the point man for all home volleyball, women's basketball and gymnastics contests, drawing crowds up to 6,000. His duties and events included facility maintenance and arena conversion, tournament manager for NCAA volleyball regional, overseeing the Joe Craft Welcome Center and managing guest services stations on football game days.

He has previous Southland Conference experience with a stint at Sam Houston State from 2013-15 as the athletic facilities coordinator. On top of routine facility maintenance and set up, he oversaw a staff of 50 student workers and was a game administrator for home events such as FCS playoff games. Other duties included handling facility rentals, coordinating facility repair projects such as bleacher and scoreboard renovations and operating parking lots on game days.

Mashburn served as the interim athletics event and facilities coordinator at Kennesaw State from 2011-13 after completing internships at Erskine and Shorter colleges. Building a foundation for many of his duties later in his career, Mashburn also coordinated renovation projects such as new basketball goal systems and other major equipment purchases. He pitched in as a game clock operator and as a fan fest coordinator for the 2011 Division I Women's College Cup.

A South Carolina graduate, Mashburn has a sport and entertainment management degree and is pursuing a master's in sport management from Morehead State.

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Zack NIELSEN

Zack Nielsen is in his first full season with the Northwestern State strength and conditioning staff after being hired as an assistant this past March.

He is the lead trainer for men's basketball and also develops comprehensive strength programs for women's soccer and softball. Nielsen assists in designing the football strength program.

Nielsen, who earned his bachelor's degree at Eastern Washington-Cheney in 2014, spent nearly two years as a graduate assistant strength coach at his alma mater.

At EWU-Cheney, he implemented comprehensive programs for cross country and jumpers and throwers on the track team. He served as an assistant to soccer, volleyball and basketball as well.

Nielsen, a four-year letter winner in throws and won the 2014 Big Sky Conference hammer title, designed warm-up activities for a variety of sports at EWU-Cheney.

He served as an assistant to soccer, volleyball and basketball.

Nielsen assisted USA Weightlifting Coach Pat Corbet in instructional sessions.

Nielsen is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is a Level 1 USA Weightlifting coach.

Nielsen is enrolled in NSU's graduate program for Health and Human Performance.

ASSISTANT ACADEMIC COORDINATOR
DIRECTOR OF ENHANCED ACADEMIC PROGRAM

Betsy NOHAVITZA

Betsy Nohavitzka enters her second full academic year as part of the Northwestern State athletics academic services staff and her first leading NSU's Enhanced Academic Program.

Nohavitzka arrived in Natchitoches in February 2015 after earning her undergraduate and graduate degrees from Texas A&M. She manages NCAA academic eligibility requirements for four Northwestern State athletic programs, provides assistance to student-athletes and tutors in NSU's Johnnie Emmons Athletic Study Center and facilitates meetings and activities with NSU's Student Athlete Advisory Committee.

While at Texas A&M, Nohavitzka was a graduate assistant instructor in the Department of Health and Kinesiology while pursuing her master's in sport management.

As an undergraduate, Nohavitzka interned in the Aggies athletic department in the life skills department. There she assisted student-athletes with creating resumes and cover letters, planned informational business meetings for student-athletes and organized and hosted three student-athlete banquets in the Spring 2013 semester.

Nohavitzka was named Texas A&M College of Education and Human Development Distinguished Student in Spring 2012 and was named to the Dean's Honor Roll in Fall 2012.

ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
SENIOR WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

Dr. Haley Blount TAITANO

Haley Blount Taitano, a school record-setting competitor as a Northwestern State track and field student-athlete, enters her third year as NSU's assistant athletic director for development and marketing and her first as NSU's Senior Woman Administrator.

Taitano has overseen the rebranding and the revamping the N-Club, Northwestern State's association of former athletic letterwinners, and helped coordinate the annual N-Club Hall of Fame induction ceremonies.

Additionally, she increased funding to the Demons Unlimited Foundation Annual Fund by 16 percent, setting records for funding to the fund, which supports the Northwestern State athletic department.

Taitano, a magna cum laude graduate of NSU in May 2006, was executive director of the NSU Alumni Association as well as the associate director of alumni affairs from July 2011-September 2014. She solicited funds for the Alumni Association and NSU Foundation, planned and coordinated all alumni events and events assigned by the office of NSU president Dr. Randy Webb, and managed the Alumni Association website, social media pages, the Purple Pulse e-newsletter and the Alumni Columns magazine.

Previously, she worked as an assistant in student services for the Stephen F. Austin athletics department for 18 months from 2010-11. For nearly three years following her graduation from Northwestern, Blount was an assistant track and field coach and head cross country coach at NSU.

Taitano is actively engaged in community service organizations, serving as a board member and officer in three prominent local organizations.

She earned her master's degree in sport administration from NSU in 2007 and completed her doctoral degree in educational leadership from Louisiana Tech in December.

Taitano was a four-year competitor as a pole vaulter for the Lady Demons and still holds the NSU women's school record with an 11-6 ¼ clearance at the 2006 Southland Conference Outdoor Championships. She did an internship with USA Track & Field in 2007, serving as assistant producer of the AT&T USA Outdoor Championships in Indianapolis, and she also assisted with operations at the 2008 USA Olympic Trials in Eugene, Ore.

She was the women's track and field team representative from 2004-06 on the NSU Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and was on the 2005 All-Louisiana Collegiate Track and Field Team based on posting one of the top three marks by any state competitor in her event. Blount was included on the Southland Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll for academic achievement each season from 2002-06.

Taitano is a past president of the women's service organization Les Amies of Natchitoches and has been a board member since 2009. She has coordinated Les Amies community service activities and assisted with fundraising.

She currently is the president of the Kiwanis Club of Natchitoches. Blount also has been the fundraising coordinator and a board member for the Natchitoches Hope for Paws organization. She's also been a team captain for the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life in Natchitoches, has assisted with the Natchitoches Parish Special Olympics and is the Chair of the Natchitoches Young Professionals group.

As an undergraduate, Taitano won the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority highest grade point average award in 2005 and 2006, and earned the NSU Health and Human Performance Department's Hall of Fame Award in 2006 for being the outstanding student-athlete of the year.

Taitano and her husband Jesse, an assistant chief with the Natchitoches Parish Sheriff's Office, were married in July, and the couple has one son, Jesse Jr. (13).

DOUG IRELAND

Assistant AD/Sports Information Director

In charge of athletic media relations at his alma mater since January 1989, Doug Ireland coordinates publicity efforts for Northwestern's 14 inter-collegiate sports teams through local, regional and national media outlets in print, broadcast, television and the internet.

He also serves in the volunteer role of chairman of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. Ireland assumed that post in April 1990.

He was chosen as the 2016 recipient of the Southland Conference's Lou- is Bonnette Sports Media Award, named for the iconic retired McNeese SID.

His 1992 Demon Football Media Guide won "Best in the Nation" in FCS Division from the College Sports Information Directors of America. A 1997 story on Joe Delaney, "The Guy We Called Joe D," won a national second-place award in a CoSIDA writing contest. Ireland has won dozens of awards as SID from the Louisiana Sports Writers Association, including 27 this century.

In 1981-82, while an undergraduate at Northwestern, Ireland worked as chief of the Shreveport Times Natchitoches Bureau, coordinating news coverage of an eight-parish region along the Red River. From 1982-85, he was assistant SID at Southwestern Louisiana (now UL Lafayette), working with a men's basketball program that made three straight postseason tournament appearances. He won CoSIDA publications and writing awards while at USL. Ireland was the sports editor of the Natchitoches Times in 1985-86 and attended graduate school at Northeast Louisiana (now UL Monroe) before joining the Alexandria Town Talk sports staff in 1987. In 18 months at the Town Talk, he covered both NSU and LSU sports and won 15 writing awards from the Louisiana Sports Writers' Association.

In 2001, the LSWA presented its prestigious Mac Russo Award to Ireland for his contributions to the organization. In 1999, Ireland was awarded honorary membership in the Graduate N Club at NSU by the university's group of athletic lettermen for his service to Northwestern and its athletic program, and in 2003 he was given full membership. He was appointed by President Dr. Randall Webb to serve a two-year term on the inaugural University Planning Council in 1997-99.

In 2008, he was awarded the Northwest Louisiana's National Football Foundation "Distinguished American" award and in 2012 he was honored by the Alexandria Town Talk by being named the "CENLA Sportsman of the Year" award for his work as an SID and toward the completion of the $23 million Hall of Fame Museum.

Louisiana Lt. Gov. Jay Dardenne presented a special award to Ireland at the grand opening of the museum on June 28, 2013, for his "tireless work and dedication to the creation" of the museum. The Louisiana Association of Museums gave him its Lois Wyatt Bannon "Heart and Soul" Service Award in April 2014 for his work with the museum.

A member of the Blue Key National Honor Fraternity and a student government senator while completing a journalism degree from Northwestern, Ireland was editor of the student newspaper "Current Sauce" as a sophomore before going to work for the Shreveport Times. He was an all-district baseball player and the student body president at Jonesboro-Hodge High School, where he was a wingback for the Tigers' 1977 Class AA state football finalists coached by the late Don Shows.

JASON PUGH

Assistant Sports Information Director

A 12-year veteran of The (Shreveport) Times newsroom, Jason Pugh is in his third year as the assistant sports information director at Northwestern State after joining the department in October 2014.

During his Times tenure, Pugh was the Northwestern State football and men's basketball beat writer from 2010-2013 and covered the 2012-13 NSU team that captured the program's third NCAA Tournament berth.

Prior to covering area college athletics, Pugh was the primary high school sports writer at The Times, during which he covered several athletes whose careers led them to Northwestern State, including All-Southland Conference men's basketball performers Jalan West and Zeek Woodley and former All-Southland Conference third baseman Chase Daughdrill (baseball).

At The Times, Pugh had the opportunity to cover all three World Series that have taken place in Texas, one College World Series, one NCAA Men's Final Four and Super Bowl XLV. He has won first-place awards in Best Feature Story and Best Sports Story from the Louisiana Press Association and first place in Best Prep Feature from the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

While a student at Louisiana-Lafayette, Pugh was the sports editor of the campus newspaper, The Vermilion, for two years and was a part of the sports information office for three years. In 2000-01, Pugh was the primary media contact for the inaugural season of Lady Cajuns soccer and for the nationally ranked Ragin' Cajuns baseball team, which made its lone College World Series appearance the previous year.

A 1997 graduate of Airline High School in Bossier City, Pugh was named the 2001 Louisiana-Lafayette Department of Communication Outstanding Graduate. He completed requirements for a master's of science in sport management from the Mark H. McCormack Department of Sport Management at the University of Massachusetts in 2015.

MATT VINES

Assistant Director of Communication

Former sports journalist Matt Vines is in his second year in the Northwestern State sports information office.

Vines, a sports writer at The Jackson (Tennessee) Sun, The (Monroe) News-Star and The (Shreveport) Times, began his sports information career as a graduate assistant during the 2015-16 academic year before joining the university as its assistant director of communications.

Vines, a 2008 LSU journalism graduate, serves as the primary media contact for the NSU soccer and softball teams and is the secondary contact for the men's basketball team.

Vines is a native of Knoxville, Tennessee, and graduated from C.E. Byrd High School. He is pursuing a master's degree in sport administration at NSU.

NORTHWESTERN STATE

DEDICATED TO ONE GOAL. YOURS.

We are Northwestern State, the oldest institution in the University of Louisiana System and a university with a long tradition of academic excellence in a student-centered environment.

Founded in 1884 as the State Normal School, Northwestern State grew into the leading four-year university of the region with satellite campus and learning locations serving northern and central Louisiana.

Northwestern State has nationally-recognized programs in computer information systems, creative and performing arts, nursing, educational technology and industrial technology. The university has put an emphasis on incorporating technology in the classroom, working to provide students with cutting-edge technology that is applicable to the workplace. Northwestern State also includes real-world experience through internships and workplace-oriented coursework. Along with four colleges -- Allied Health, Education, Science, Business and Technology and Arts and Sciences -- NSU is the home of the Louisiana Scholars' College, the state's designated honors college.

Consistent with its roots as Louisiana's first teacher instruction institution, Northwestern State pioneered aggressive ways to deliver to courses to students. Starting with distance education innovations in the later 20th century, Northwestern State's global campus of eNSU now serves students around the world with 31 fully on-line degree programs and hundreds of individual course offerings.

Enrollment at Northwestern State is more than 9,000 students with more than 80,000 alumni in all 50 states and 12 countries. Students come to NSU from every parish of the state of Louisiana.

Located in Natchitoches, the oldest settlement in the Louisiana Purchase, the university and community value history. Part of the university is entered in the National Register of Historic Places. The university is home to the National Center for Preservation Technology and Training, a unit of the National Park Service dedicated to promoting and enhancing the preservation and conservation of prehistoric and historic resources in the United States.

Northwestern State seeks to provide a well-rounded education for its students, allowing them to take part in a variety of extracurricular activities. More than 100 chartered organizations are available to enhance what is learned in the classroom.

WELCOME TO NATCHITOCHES THE CITY OF LIGHTS AND THE SOUTH'S NO. 1 SMALL TOWN

IN 2015, USA TODAY READERS LET THE NATION KNOW SOMETHING THOSE OF US HERE HAVE LONG UNDERSTOOD - THE COMBINATION OF CHARM AND 303 YEARS OF HISTORY FOUND IN NATCHITOCHES MAKES FOR THE QUINTESSENTIAL SOUTHERN COMMUNITY, VOTING IT THE BEST SMALL TOWN IN THE SOUTH.

ACADEMICS

- NSU has been either first or second among public universities in the state of Louisiana and top three in the SLC over that same time period in the NCAA Graduation Success Rate since 2005.
- Through 10 years of APR reports, the NSU athletic program is among the elite around the country that are in good standing and have not incurred any contemporaneous or historical penalties.
- A Northwestern student-athlete has won one of the two SLC Postgraduate Scholarships three of the past six years.

CAMPUS LIFE

Students at Northwestern State enjoy a beautiful campus and surrounding community, with a commitment from the university and the city of Natchitoches to provide a friendly and fun home-away-from home during their time at NSU.

The Department of Student Activities delivers programs, services and activities that provide entertainment, learning experiences, and opportunities for leadership and campus and community service-related activities. Student organizations, including an active Greek system of fraternities and sororities along with the Student Alumni Association and the Student Government Association, have constant involvement with NSU Athletics. The Demon Rewards program gives NSU students incentives, including cash and prizes, for attending NSU athletic events.

CHAMPS/ LIFE SKILLS

The mission of the NCAA is to maintain intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of the campus educational program and the student-athlete as an integral part of the student body. With this in mind, the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program was created to support the student-athlete development initiatives of NCAA member institutions and to enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience within the context of higher education.

In the process of achieving this mission, the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program will:

- Promote student-athletes' ownership of their academic, athletic, career, personal and community responsibilities.
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes.
- Promote respect for diversity and inclusion among student-athletes.
- Assist student-athletes in identifying and applying transferable skills.
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education.
- Foster an environment that encourages student-athletes to effectively access campus resources.
- Encourage the development of character, integrity and leadership skills.

Participating members in the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program are provided with sample materials and supplemental resources which support a student-athlete's development in five areas: academics, athletics, personal development, career development and community service.

CHAMPS/Life Skills at NSU

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

The Personal Development piece is designed to cover many different subjects that student-athletes may not learn sitting in a classroom. Monthly workshops are held to teach student-athletes basic "life skills" that will be needed once they graduate. Some examples of areas which are covered include: personal finance, proper dining etiquette, personal nutrition, leadership, cooking tips, etc.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Career Development is the cornerstone for the NSU CHAMPS program. Career Development opportunities are offered to all NSU student-athletes to assist them in preparing for life after college athletics. The staff is highly trained to provide services including: major and career assessments, résumé-writing, and mock interviewing - complete with video equipment for instant replay. All of these services are geared to specifically highlight the unique transferrable skills that student-athletes possess and to help ensure a successful transition to the professional world.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Community service is of high importance to NSU athletics. We believe that it is essential to give back to our community and teach the importance of being active citizens. NSU student-athletes totaled over 4,700 hours of community service in the 2010-11 academic year, bringing the total to nearly 10,000 hours in the last two years.
